Food Vendor Checklist

Hi! We've put this checklist together to help you complete the application process as quickly and easily as possible.

1. Please fill out Camelot Days Food Vendor Form
2. You will be contacted once your application has been reviewed and approved, so be sure to provide your email address and current phone number.
3. Completely fill out the Broward County Vendor Permit Application. Please do not leave anything blank. If a section does not apply to you, just put N/A in the field form. If anything is left blank, the County will not process your application.
4. Perform a FDLE background search on every person who will be on site working in your booth. This is a Broward County requirement. You will only get entry wristbands for the people who have been checked!
5. Please fill out the Vendor Affidavit and get it notarized.
6. You need Liability Insurance for this event for both Broward County and Camelot Days Insurance Requirements for Broward County Parks & Recreation Division:
 - Certificate must be signed by the insurance company's authorized representative.
 - Certificate Holders must be "Broward County, 950 N.W. 38th Street, Oakland Park, FL 33309" and "Camelot Days, 6971 SW 64th St. Miami FL 33143"
 - Broward County and Camelot Days must also be named as Additional Insured.
 - Business name and address of the insured are required on certificate.
 - Please include a brief description of business operations and indicate if the certificate is for a special event at a Broward County park (such as Camelot Days).
 - $500,000 minimum general liability insurance is required, except that a minimum of $300,000 is acceptable for DJs, Photographers, Clowns, Characters and Magicians. Food Vendors liability coverage must include product liability.
 - 30 days written notice of cancellation is required (except 10 days for non-payment of premium).

FOOD VENDOR POLICIES

Your booth must conform to the Faire theme: Medieval/Renaissance. Your cooperation in operating an attractive renaissance-decorated, clean booth will be appreciated.

In order to ensure the unique quality of Camelot Days, all food vendors must have prior approval of all items to be sold. Every item, beverage and food should be clearly listed on the Festival Application. Please note items that are not listed and approved on your application cannot be sold.

Vehicles and trailers are not permitted in the Park during Festival hours and may not be used to dispense products without prior written approval of the Camelot Days director. $45 for electricity (Fri-Sun all three weekends). Limited electrical spots available.

Vendors must clean up their areas during and at the end of Festival. Trash and garbage generated in the production of food must be in plastic bags. Oils and grease must be in sealed non-spill containers. Cooking oil and charcoal must not be dumped on the ground.

You are required to have Liability Insurance and a valid Food Sale Permit from the Broward County Public Health Department for this event. You are required to send a copy of your insurance by September 15 with the additional insurer as the "Broward County 950 N.W. 38th St. Oakland Park, FL 33309" also additional insurer "Camelot Days 6971 SW 64th St, Miami FL 33143".

Camelot Days Inc., The Broward County Parks & Recreation Department and City of Hollywood will not be responsible for theft, loss, damage, or injury of any person or property.
